~~procedures or by direct purchase. Montana produced food products may be procured by direct purchase when:~~

~~(i) the quality of available Montana produced food products is substantially equivalent to the quality of similar food products produced outside the state;~~

~~(ii) a vendor is able to supply Montana produced food products in sufficient quantity; and~~

~~(iii) a bid for Montana produced food products either does not exceed or reasonably exceeds the lowest bid or price quoted for similar food products produced outside the state. A bid reasonably exceeds the lowest bid or price quoted when, in the discretion of the person charged by law with the duty to purchase food products for a governmental body, the higher bid is reasonable and capable of being paid out of that governmental body's existing budget without any further supplemental or additional appropriation.~~

~~(b) The department shall adopt any rules necessary to administer the optional procurement exception established in this subsection (4).~~

~~(5) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:~~

~~(a) "Food" means articles normally used by humans as food or drink, including articles used for components of articles normally used by humans as food or drink.~~

~~(b) "Produced" means planted, cultivated, grown, harvested, raised, collected, processed, or manufactured."~~
