Description of fiscal impact

HB 680 revises contract term limits for the Montana Heritage Preservation and Development Commission, for commercial leases with private organizations that invest substantial capital in property managed by the commission. There is no fiscal impact.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Department of Commerce

1. Under current law, the Montana Heritage Preservation and Development Commission is allowed to contract with private organizations to assist in managing the properties it is responsible for. Contracts are not to exceed 20 years.
2. HB 680 makes an exception for commercial leases with private organizations that invest substantial capital in property managed by the commission, by setting the expiration date for such leases at 99 years.
3. There is no fiscal impact to the commission or the department.
