Description of fiscal impact

HB 438 establishes a Board of Physical, Rehabilitative, and Developmental Healthcare Professionals, and provides for the transfer of authority for athletic trainers, occupational therapy practitioners, physical therapy examiners, and speech-language pathologists and audiologists. This legislation has no net fiscal impact to the state.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Department of Labor and Industry

1. Because HB 438 only requires the reorganization of occupations with boards within the same division of the department, there is no fiscal impact.
