Description of fiscal impact

HB 686, as amended, revises laws related to physician assistants and increases physician assistant membership on the Board of Medical Examiners. The two additional members will result in a small increase in personal service costs to the Board of Medical Examiners.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

1. The addition of two physician assistant board members to the Board of Medical Examiners, requires an estimated increase in per diem costs with a yearly average of $3,200 of state special revenue funds.
