Description of fiscal impact

HB 241 adopts the psychology interjurisdictional compact providing for recognition of home state licensure, requirements to practice telepsychology, temporary authorization to practice psychology, and conditions to practice telepsychology in a receiving state. The legislation also provides for an adverse action process, a coordinated licensure information system and establishes a compact commission. The fiscal impact of this legislation will be the initial IT costs.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Department of Labor and Industry

1. The Technology Services Division (TSD) of the Department of Labor and Industry (DLI) estimates that it will spend 109 hours to complete an analysis for the psychology interjurisdictional compact. This estimate also includes work to design, develop, script, and test. The Board of Psychologists will be billed at a rate of $120 per hour for a total expense of $13,080.
2. There will be no rulemaking costs to implement this legislation to the Board of Psychologists nor to the department.
