Description of fiscal impact

SB 464 revises laws related to the appointment of special advocates in child abuse and neglect proceedings. There will be no fiscal impact to the Judicial Branch.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Judiciary

1. SB 464, Section 1, replaces "court appointed special advocate" with "special advocate" in abuse and neglect proceedings. Special advocates will require specific training and cannot be compensated for the duties performed.
2. Section 1 (9) allows for a judge to appoint an attorney or other qualified person to perform special advocate duties at public expense if a special advocate is not available.
3. Under current statute Judicial Branch pays court appointed special advocates in abuse and neglect cases from funding established in 3-1-707, MCA as well as with general fund dollars appropriated in HB 2.
4. The Judicial Branch assumes that the judge will have to appoint an attorney or other qualified person at public expense in most cases due to the minimum qualifications and training requirements established in section 1. The Judicial Branch does not estimate a decrease or increase in expenditures related to this bill, therefore no fiscal impact to the Judicial Branch.
