Description of fiscal impact

HB 492, as amended, revises parking space requirements in municipal zoning, allows property owners, developers, and builders to provide more than the minimum number of parking spaces, and provides a delayed effective date. The bill has no fiscal impact to the state and some potential impact to cities and towns.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

1. There is no fiscal impact to the state.

Effect on County or Other Local Revenues or Expenditures

League of Cities and Towns

1. HB 492 creates unquantifiable negative impact from unfunded mandate to change zoning regulations, including costs of notice, public hearings, and adoption.

MACO

1. No impact to counties when parking requirements are amended.
