Description of fiscal impact

SB 250 requires that the Office of the Child and Family Ombudsman hire additional personnel, provide timely responses, and make efforts to assist those who make requests. The Office of the Child and Family Ombudsman is currently structured within the Department of Justice. This fiscal note outlines the cost of the new positions.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Department of Justice

1. The additional positions expand the capacity of the DOJ Office of Child and Family Ombudsman, as the obligations under current law are performed by a single ombudsman. The Special Services Bureau Chief supervises all ombudsman staff.
2. SB 250 would require DCI to hire the 6 new staff members as outlined and would require a minimum of two vehicles for ombudsman travel. The costs are outlined below:
 - a. 2.00 FTE Ombudsman, $99,490 per FTE including salary and associated benefits
 - b. 2.00 FTE Central Intake Specialists, $66,780 per FTE including salary and associated benefits
 - c. 2.00 FTE Research & Data Analysts, $99,878 per FTE including salary and associated benefits
 - d. Operating costs include rent, required training for each FTE, travel expenses, and office set-up.
3. 1.5% inflationary rate is applied for FY 2028 and FY 2029.
