| 1  | the office shall be vacant and a replacement shall be made under the procedures provided for in this section.         |
|----|---|
| 2  | The appointee shall serve until the election for the office as provided by law and until a successor is elected       |
| 3  | and qualified. The person elected or retained at the election shall serve until the expiration of the term for which  |
| 4  | his predecessor was elected. No appointee, whether confirmed or unconfirmed, shall serve past the term of his         |
| 5  | predecessor without standing for election.  |
| 6  | (3)(5) If an incumbent files for election for the office of district court judge and there is no election             |
| 7  | contest for the office, the name of the incumbent district court judge shall nevertheless be placed on the general    |
| 8  | election ballot to allow the voters of the state or district to approve or reject him. If an incumbent district court |
| 9  | judge is rejected, the vacancy in the office for which the election was held shall be filled as provided in           |
