Description of fiscal impact

General Fund Balance

SB 14 requires a one-time performance audit of the State Bar of Montana. The fiscal impact to the Judicial Branch is $68,074.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Judicial Branch

- 1. This bill requires a one-time performance audit of the Office of Disciplinary Counsel with a final report due to the Law and Justice Interim Committee no later than December 15, 2026.
- 2. One-time general fund authority in the 2027 Biennium will be necessary to cover the costs of the audit.

Legislative Branch

- 1. The Legislative Audit Division (LAD) charges $97.11 an hour for a performance audit. Based on past completed performance audits, LAD estimates the audit will take 701 hours for a cost of $68,074.
- This estimate uses the FY 2025 performance audit hourly billing rate. The performance audit hourly rate for the FY 2026 and FY 2027 fiscal years has not yet been developed, however, so all billing to the Judicial Branch will be updated with those rates.
- 3. The estimated $68,074 cost of the performance audit paid by the Judicial Branch to LAD would be deposited in the state special revenue account of LAD.
- 4. LAD would conduct the one-time performance audit with existing resources, so no additional expenses are shown.

Depending on the timing of the audit, the actual revenue and expenses could be split between FY 2026 and FY 2027.
