adequate municipal facilities will be provided for the subdivision. For a subdivision subject to Title 76, chapter 3 or 25, the certifying authority shall send notice of certification to the reviewing authority prior to final plat approval.

- (2) The notice of certification must include the following:
- 5 (a) the name and address of the applicant;
  - (b) a copy of the preliminary plat included with the application for the proposed subdivision or a final plat when a preliminary plat is not necessary or, for a subdivision not subject to Title 76, chapter 3 or 25, a copy of the certificate of survey map or amended plat map or a declaration and floor plan, including the layout of each unit proposed to be recorded under Title 70, chapter 23, part 3;
- 10 (c) the number of parcels in the subdivision;
- 11 (d) a copy of any applicable zoning ordinances in effect;
- 12 (e) how construction of the sewage disposal and water supply systems or extensions will be 13 financed;
  - (f) the relative location of the subdivision to the city or the county water and/or sewer district boundaries of the certifying authority;
  - (g) certification that adequate municipal or county water and/or sewer district facilities for the supply of water and disposal of sewage and solid waste will be provided. Facilities for subdivisions subject to 76-3-507 or 76-25-413 must be provided within the time that section provides required by the governing body under 76-3-507 or 76-25-413, as applicable.
  - (h) if water supply, sewage disposal, solid waste, or storm water drainage facilities are not municipally owned, certification from the facility owners that adequate facilities will be available; and
  - (i) certification that the certifying authority has or will review and approve plans to ensure adequate storm water drainage.
  - (3) A municipality may be authorized to act as a reviewing authority under this section and may self-approve the municipality's own exemption."

Section 7. Section 76-25-103, MCA, is amended to read:

3	Section 8. Section 76-25-104, MCA, is amended to read:
4	"76-25-104. Planning commission. (1) (a) Each local government shall establish, by ordinance or
5	resolution, a planning commission.
6	(b) Any combination of local governments may create a multi-jurisdiction-multijurisdictional
7	planning commission or join an existing commission pursuant to an interlocal agreement.
8	(c) (i) Any combination of legally authorized planning boards, zoning commissions, planning and
9	zoning commissions, or boards of adjustment existing prior to May 17, 2023, may be considered duly
10	constituted under this chapter as a planning commission by agreement of the governing bodies of each
11	jurisdiction represented on the planning commission.
12	(ii) If more than one legally authorized planning board, zoning commission, or planning and zoning
13	commission exists within a jurisdiction, the governing bodies of each jurisdiction may agree to:
14	(A) designate, combine, consolidate, or modify one or more of the authorized boards or
15	commissions as the planning commission; or
16	(B) create a new planning commission pursuant to this section and disband the existing boards
17	and commissions.
18	(d) (i) A local government subject to this chapter may continue to be represented on an existing
19	city-county planning board, joint city-county planning board, or consolidated city-county planning board as
20	authorized under Title 76, chapter 1, with other local governments and share in the membership duties and
21	costs of the board.
22	(ii) A local government's continued participation in a planning board as set forth in subsection
23	(1)(d)(i) is solely for the purposes set forth in Title 76, chapter 1.
24	(2) (a) (i) Each planning commission must consist of an odd number of no fewer than three voting
25	members who are confirmed by majority vote of each local governing body.
26	(ii) Each jurisdiction must be equally represented in the membership of a multi-jurisdiction
27	multijurisdictional planning commission.

n Legislature 2025 Drafter: Toni Henneman, SB0121.002.001

1	(b)	The planning commission shall meet at least once every 6 months.
2	(c)	Minutes must be kept of all meetings of the planning commission, and all meetings and records
3	must be open to	o the public.
4	(d)	A majority of currently appointed voting members of the planning commission constitutes a
5	quorum. A quoi	rum must be present for the planning commission to take official action. A favorable vote of at
6	least a majority	of the quorum is required to authorize an action at a regular or properly called special meeting.
7	(e)	The ordinance, resolution, or interlocal agreement creating the planning commission must set
8	forth the require	ements for appointments, terms, qualifications, removal, vacancies, meetings, notice of
9	meetings, office	ers, reimbursement of costs, bylaws, or any other requirement determined necessary by the loca
10	governing body
11	(3)	(a) Except as set forth in subsection (3)(b), the planning commission shall review and make
12	recommendation	ons to the local governing body regarding the development, adoption, amendment, review, and
13	approval or der	nial of the following documents:
14	(i)	the land use plan and future land use map as provided in 76-25-201;
15	(ii)	zoning regulations and map as provided in Title 76, chapter 25, part 3;
16	(iii)	subdivision regulations as provided in Title 76, chapter 25, part 4; and
17	(iv)	any other legislative land use planning document the local governing body designates.
18	(b)	In accordance with 76-25-503, the planning commission shall hear and decide appeals from
19	any site-specific	c land use decisions made by the planning administrator pursuant to the adopted regulations
20	described in su	bsection (3)(a). Decisions of the planning commission may be appealed to the local governing
21	body as provide	ed in 76-25-503.
22	(4)	The planning commission may be funded pursuant to 76-1-403, and 76-1-404, and 76-1-406."
23
24	Section	n 9. Section 76-25-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-25-106. Public participation. (1) (a) A local government shall provide continuous public participation when adopting, amending, or updating a land use plan or regulations pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Public participation in the adoption, amendment, or update of a land use plan or implementing

1	regulations must provide for, at a minimum:
2	(i)	dissemination of draft documents;
3	(ii)	an opportunity for written and verbal comments;
4	(iii)	public meetings after effective notice;
5	(iv)	electronic communication regarding the process, including online access to documents,
6	updates, and co	omments; and
7	(v)	an analysis of and response to public comments.
8	(2)	A local government shall document and retain all public outreach and participation performed
9	as part of the a	dministrative record in accordance with the retention schedule published by the secretary of
10	state.
11	(3)	(a) A local government may decide the method for providing:
12	(i)	general public notice and participation in the adoption, amendment, or update of a land use
13	plan or regulation; and
14	(ii)	notice of written comment on applications for land use permits pursuant to this chapter.
15	(b)	All notices must clearly specify the nature of the land use plan or regulation under
16	consideration, v	what type of comments the local government is seeking from the public, and how the public may
17	participate.
18	(c)	The local government shall document what methods it used to provide continuous participation
19	in the developn	nent, adoption, or update of a land use plan or regulation and shall document all comments
20	received.
21	(d)	The department of commerce established in 2-15-1801 and functioning pursuant to 90-1-103
22	shall develop a	list of public participation methods and best practices for use by local governments in
23	developing, add	opting, or updating a land use plan or regulations.
24	(4)	Throughout the adoption, amendment, or update of the land use plan or regulation processes,
25	a local governn	nent shall emphasize that:
26	(a)	the land use plan is intended to identify the opportunities for development of land within the
27	planning area f	or housing, businesses, agriculture, and the extraction of natural resources, while acknowledging and addressing the impacts of that development on adjacent properties, the community, the

2	natural environment, public services and facilities, and natural hazards;
3	(b) the process provides for continuous and extensive public notice, review, comment, and
4	participation in the development of the land use plan or regulation; and
5	(c) the final adopted land use plan, including amendments or updates to the final adopted land use
6	plan, comprises the basis for implementing land use regulations in substantial compliance with the land use
7	plan ; and
8	(d) the scope of and opportunity for public participation and comment on site-specific development
9	in substantial compliance with the land use plan must be limited only to those impacts or significantly increased
10	impacts that were not previously identified and considered in the adoption, amendment, or update of the land
11	use plan, zoning regulations, or subdivision regulations.
12	(5) The local governing body shall adopt a public participation plan detailing how the local
13	government will meet the requirements of this section."
14
15	Section 10. Section 76-25-301, MCA, is amended to read:
16	"76-25-301. Authority to adopt local zoning regulations. (1) (a) A local government subject to this
17	chapter, within its respective jurisdiction, has the authority to and shall regulate the use of land in substantial
18	compliance with its adopted land use plan by adopting zoning regulations.
19	(b) The governing body of a county or city has the authority to adopt zoning regulations in
20	accordance with this part by an ordinance that substantially complies with 7-5-103 through 7-5-107.
21	(c) (i) A municipality shall adopt zoning regulations for the portions of the jurisdictional area outside

A municipality subject to this chapter may continue to apply, administer, and enforce located within the floodway of a flood of 100-year frequency, as defined by Title 76, chapter 5, or determined to be subject to flooding by the governing body. If the hazards cannot be mitigated, the zoning regulations and map must identify those areas where future development is limited or prohibited.

(8) The zoning regulations must allow for the continued use of land or buildings legal at the time that any zoning regulation, map, or amendment thereto is adopted, but the local government may provide grounds for discontinuing nonconforming uses based on changes to or abandonment of the use of the land or buildings after the adoption of a zoning regulation, map, or amendment."

Section 11. Section 76-25-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-25-305. Effect on zoning regulations and map. (1) After the adoption of a zoning regulation, map, or amendment pursuant to 76-25-304, any application proposing development of a site is subject to the process set forth in this section.

- (2) (a) When a proposed development lies entirely within an incorporated city, or is proposed for annexation into the city, the application must be submitted to and approved by the city.
- (b) Except as provided in subsections (2)(a) or (2)(c), when a proposed development lies entirely in an unincorporated area, the application must be submitted to and approved by the county.
- (c) If a proposed development lies within an area subject to increased growth pressures, higher development densities, or other urban development influences identified by either jurisdiction in 76-25-213, the jurisdiction shall provide other impacted jurisdictions the opportunity to review and comment on the application.
- (d) If the proposed development lies partly within an incorporated city, the application and materials must be submitted to and approved by both the city and the county governing bodies.
- (3) Zoning compliance permits and other ministerial permits may be issued by the planning administrator or the planning administrator's designee without any further review or analysis by the governing body, except as provided in 76-25-503.
- (4) After accepting a complete application proposing development of a site, the planning administrator shall make an initial determination of whether:
  - (a) If a proposed development, with or without variances or deviations from adopted standards, is

- 2025

1	in substantial compliance with the zoning regulations or map; and
2	(b) all impacts resulting from the proposed development were previously analyzed and made
3	available for public review and comment prior to in the adoption, amendment, or update of the land use plan,
4	zoning regulation, or zoning map, or amendment thereto.
5	(4) (a) If the planning administrator makes an initial determination that the proposed development,
6	with or without variances or deviations from adopted standards, meets the requirements of subsections (3)(a)
7	and (3)(b), the planning administrator shall provide public notice of the initial determination in accordance with
8	76-25-106(3)(a) and (3)(b) and a 15-business-day written public comment period during which the public must
9	have an opportunity to comment on the initial determination.
10	(b) Unless public comment received on or before the last day of the comment period provided in
11	subsection (4)(a) supports a determination that the proposed development fails to meet the requirements of
12	subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b), the planning administrator shall issue written findings stating the results of the
13	public comment and a final written decision approving, approving with conditions, or denying the application,
14	which may be appealed as provided in 76-25-503.
15	(c) If public comment received on or before the last day of the comment period provided in
16	subsection (4)(a) provides evidence that the proposed development fails to meet either one or both of the
17	requirements of subsections (3)(a) or (3)(b), the planning administrator shall proceed with further review of the
18	application as set forth in subsection (5)., the application must be approved, approved with conditions, or
19	denied by the planning administrator and is not subject to any further public review or comment, except as
20	provided in 76-25-503 .
21	(5) (a) If a-the planning administrator makes an initial determination or public comment received
22	under subsection (4)(c) provides evidence that the proposed development, with or without variances or
23	deviations from adopted standards, fails to meet either one or both of the requirements of subsections (3)(a) or
24	(3)(b)is in substantial compliance with the zoning regulations and map but may result in new or significantly
25	increased potential impacts that have not been previously identified and considered in the adoption of the land
26	use plan or zoning regulations, the planning administrator shall proceed as follows:
27	(b)(a) request that the applicant collect any additional data and perform any additional analysis

9th Legislature 2025 Drafter: Toni Henneman, SB0121.002.001

(9) Ministerial permits may be issued by the planning administrator without any discretionary review or analysis, and may be appealed as provided in 76-25-503."

Section 12. Section 76-25-408, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-25-408. Local review procedure for divisions of land. (1) An applicant may request a preapplication submittal and response from the planning administrator prior to submitting a subdivision application. The preapplication review must take place no more than 30 business days from the date that the planning administrator receives a written request for a preapplication review from the subdivider.

- (2) On receipt of an application for an exemption from subdivision review under 76-25-402 that contains all materials and information required by the governing body under subsection (5), the local government:
  - (a) shall approve or deny the application within 20 business days;
- (b) may not impose conditions on the approval of an exemption from subdivision review except for conditions necessary to ensure compliance with the survey requirements of 76-25-412(1); and
- (c) may require the certificate of survey to be reviewed for errors and omissions in calculation or drafting by an examining land surveyor before filing with the county clerk and recorder. The examining land surveyor shall certify compliance in a printed or stamped certificate signed by the surveyor on the certificate of survey. A professional land surveyor may not act as an examining land surveyor in regard to a certificate of survey in which the surveyor has a financial or personal interest.
- (3) (a) When a proposed subdivision lies entirely within an incorporated city or is proposed for annexation into the city, the application and preliminary plat must be submitted to and approved by the city.
- (b) Except as provided in subsection (3)(c), when a proposed subdivision lies entirely in an unincorporated area, the application and preliminary plat must be submitted to and approved by the county.
- (c) If the proposed subdivision lies within an area subject to increased growth pressures, higher development densities, or other urban development influences identified by either jurisdiction in 76-25-213, the jurisdiction shall provide other impacted jurisdictions the opportunity to review and comment on the application.
  - (d) If the proposed subdivision lies partly within an incorporated city, the application and

1	preliminary plat must be submitted to and approved by both the city and the county governing bodies.
2	(4) A subdivision application is considered received on the date the application is delivered to the
3	reviewing agent or agency if accompanied by the review fee.
4	(5) (a) The planning administrator has 20 business days to determine whether the application
5	contains all information and materials necessary to complete the review of the application as set forth in the
6	local subdivision regulations.
7	(b) The planning administrator may review subsequent submissions of the application only for
8	information found to be deficient during the original review of the application under subsection (5)(a).
9	(c) A determination that an application contains sufficient information for review as provided in
10	subsection (5)(a) does not ensure approval or conditional approval of the proposed subdivision and does not
11	limit the ability of the planning administrator to request additional information during the review process.
12	(6) A subdivider may propose a phasing plan for approval with a preliminary plat. The phasing plan
13	must include a phasing plan and map that demonstrates what lots will be included with each phase, what public
14	facilities will be completed with each phase, and the timeline for the proposed phases.
15	(7) After accepting a complete application proposing subdivision of a site, the planning
16	administrator shall make an initial determination of whether:
17	(7) (a) If an application proposes a subdivision of a site that the proposed subdivision, with or
18	without variances or deviations from adopted standards, is in substantial compliance with the zoning and
19	subdivision regulations; and
20	(b)all impacts resulting from the development proposed subdivision were previously analyzed and
21	made available for public review and comment prior to in the adoption, amendment, or update of the land use
22	plan, zoning regulations, and subdivision regulations , or any amendment thereto, .
23	(8) (a) If the planning administrator makes an initial determination that the proposed subdivision,
24	with or without variances or deviations from adopted standards, meets subsections the requirements of (7)(a)
25	and (7)(b), the planning administrator shall provide public notice of its initial determination in accordance with
26	76-25-106(3)(a) and (3)(b) and a 15-business-day written public comment period during which the public must
27	have an opportunity to comment on the initial determination.

- 2025 69th Legislature 202

1	(b) Unless public comment received on or before the last day of the comment period provided in
2	subsection (8)(a) supports a determination that the proposed subdivision fails to meet either one or both of the
3	requirements of subsections (7)(a) or (7)(b), the planning administrator shall issue written findings stating the
4	results of the public comment and a final written decision approving, approving with conditions, or denying the
5	application, which may be appealed as provided in 76-25-503.
6	(c) If public comment received on or before the last day of the comment period in subsection (8)(a)
7	provides evidence that the proposed subdivision fails to meet either one or both of the requirements of
8	subsections (7)(a) or (7)(b), the planning administrator shall proceed with further review of the application as set
9	forth in subsection (9).
10	shall issue a written decision to approve, approve with conditions, or deny the preliminary plat.
11	(b) The application is not subject to any further public review or comment, except as provided in
12	76-25-503.
13	(c) The decision by the planning administrator must be made no later than 15 business days from
14	the date the application is considered complete.
15	(8)(9) (a) If an application proposes the planning administrator makes an initial determination or
16	public comment received under subsection (8)(c) provides evidence that a proposed subdivision of a site that,
17	with or without variances or deviations from adopted standards, is in substantial compliance with the zoning and
18	subdivision regulations but may result in new or significantly increased potential impacts that have not been
19	previously identified and considered in the adoption of the land use plan, zoning regulations, or subdivision
20	regulations, or any amendments thereto, fails to meet either one or both of the requirements of subsections
21	(7)(a) or (7)(b), the planning administrator shall proceed as follows:
22	(i)(a) request the applicant to collect any additional data and perform any additional analysis
23	necessary to provide the planning administrator and the public with the opportunity to comment on and consider
24	the impacts identified in this subsection (8)(a)lack of substantial compliance with the zoning and subdivision
25	regulations and any new or significantly increased potential impacts not previously identified and considered in
26	the adoption, amendment, or update of the land use plan, zoning regulations, and subdivision regulations;
27	(ii)(b) collect any additional data or perform any additional analysis that the planning administrator

1	determines is necessary to provide the local government and the public with the opportunity to comment on and
2	consider the impacts identified in this subsection (8)(a)lack of substantial compliance with the zoning and
3	subdivision regulations and any new or significantly increased potential impacts not previously identified or
4	considered in the adoption, amendment, or update of the land use plan, zoning regulations, and subdivision
5	regulations; and
6	(iii)(c) provide public notice of the planning administrator's initial or revised initial determination in
7	accordance with 76-25-106(3)(a) and (3)(b) of and a written comment period of 15 business days during which
8	the public must have a reasonablean opportunity to participate in the consideration of the impacts identified in
9	this subsection (8)(a) and comment on the data collected and analysis performed pursuant to subsections
10	(9)(a) and (9)(b).
11	(b)(10) Any additional data, analysis, or public comment, or consideration described in subsection (9)
12	on the proposed development is must be limited to only the lack of substantial compliance with the zoning and
13	subdivision regulations and any new or significantly increased potential impacts resulting from the proposed
14	development subdivision to the extent that the impact was not previously identified in the consideration and
15	adoption, amendment, or update of the land use plan, zoning regulations, zoning map, or subdivision
16	regulations , or any amendments thereto .
17	(9)(11) Within 30 business days of the end of the written comment period provided in subsection
18	(8)(a)(iii)(9)(c), the planning administrator shall issue written findings stating the results of the public comment
19	and shall issue a written decision to approve, conditionally approve, or deny a proposed subdivision application,
20	which may be appealed as provided in 76-25-503.
21	(10)(12) The basis of the decision to approve, conditionally approve, or deny a proposed preliminary
22	plat is based on the administrative record as a whole and a finding that the proposed subdivision:
23	(a) meets the requirements and standards of this chapter;
24	(b) meets the survey requirements provided in 76-25-412(1);
25	(c) provides the necessary easements within and to the proposed subdivision for the location and
26	installation of any planned utilities; and
27	(d) provides the necessary legal and physical access to each parcel within the proposed

1	subdivision and the required notation of that access on the applicable plat and any instrument of transfer
2	concerning the parcel.
3	(11)(13)(a) The written decision must identify each finding required in subsection (10)(12) that supports
4	the decision to approve, conditionally approve, or deny a proposed preliminary plat, including any conditions
5	placed on the approval that must be satisfied before a final plat may be approved.
6	(b) The written decision must identify all facts that support the basis for each finding and each
7	condition and identify the regulations and statutes used in reaching each finding and each condition.
8	(c) When requiring mitigation as a condition of approval, a local government may not unreasonably
9	restrict a landowner's ability to develop land. However, in some instances, the local government may determine
10	that the impacts of a proposed development are unmitigable and preclude approval of the subdivision.
11	(12)(14) The written decision to approve, conditionally approve, or deny a proposed subdivision must:
12	(a) be provided to the applicant;
13	(b) be made available to the public;
14	(c) include information regarding the appeal process; and
15	(d) state the timeframe the approval is in effect.
16	(13) The planning administrator's decision is final, and no further action may be taken except as
17	provided in 76-25-503.
18	(14)(15)Any changes to an approved preliminary plat that increases the number of lots or redesigns or
19	rearranges six or more lots must undergo consideration and approval of an amended plat following the
20	requirements of this section.
21	(16) Ministerial permits may be issued by the planning administrator without any discretionary
22	review or analysis, and may be appealed as provided in 76-25-503."

2	(b)	a plat that meets the survey requirements provided in 76-25-412(1); and
3	(c)	confirmation the county treasurer has certified that all real property taxes and special
4	assessments assessed and levied on the land to be subdivided have been paid.
5	(2)	The final plat may be required to be reviewed for errors and omissions in calculation or drafting
6	by an examinin	g land surveyor before filing with the county clerk and recorder. The examining land surveyor
7	shall certify compliance in a printed or stamped certificate signed by the surveyor on the final plat. A
8	professional land surveyor may not act as an examining land surveyor in regard to a plat in which the surveyor
9	has a financial or personal interest.
10	(3)	A final plat application is considered received on the date the application is delivered to the
11	governing body or the agent or agency designated by the governing body if accompanied by the review fee.
12	(4)	(a) Within 10 business days of receipt of a final plat, the planning administrator shall determine
13	whether the final plat contains the information required under subsection (1) and shall notify the subdivider in
14	writing.
15	(b)	If the planning administrator determines that the final plat does not contain the information
16	required under subsection (1), the planning administrator shall identify the final plat's defects in the notification.
17	(c)	The planning administrator may review subsequent submissions of the final plat only for
18	information found to be deficient during the original review of the final plat under subsection (4)(a).
19	(d)	A determination that the application for a final plat contains sufficient information for review as
20	provided in subsection (4)(a) does not ensure approval of the final plat and does not limit the ability of the
21	planning administrator to request additional information during the review process.
22	(5)	Once a determination is made under subsection (4) that the final plat contains the information for final plat of any one or more phases following the process set forth in subsections (1) through (6).

Drafter: Toni Henneman,

- (b) After 5 years have elapsed since approval of a phased preliminary plat, the planning administrator shall review each remaining phase to determine if a phase may result in new or significantly increased potential impacts that have not been previously identified and considered in the adoption of the land use plan, zoning or subdivision regulations, or review and approval of the phased preliminary plat. If the planning administrator identifies any new or significantly increased potential impacts not previously identified and considered, the planning administrator shall proceed as set forth in 76-25-408(8)(9).
- (c) If necessary to mitigate impacts identified in subsection (7)(b), the planning administrator may impose conditions on any phase before final plat approval is sought."

Section 14. Section 76-25-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-25-503. Appeals -- public hearing and notice. (1) Appeals of any final decisions made pursuant to this chapter must be made in accordance with this section.

- (2) For a challenge to the adoption of or amendment to a land use plan, zoning regulation, zoning map, or subdivision regulation, a petition setting forth the basis for the challenge must be presented to the district court within 30 days of the date of the resolution or ordinance adopted by the governing body.
- (3) (a) Any final administrative land use decision, including but not limited to approval or denial of a zoning permit, preliminary plat or final plat, imposition of a condition on a zoning permit or plat, approval or denial of a variance from a zoning or subdivision regulation, or interpretation of land use regulations or map may be appealed by the applicant or any aggrieved person to the planning commission.
- (b) An appeal under subsection (3)(a) must be submitted in writing within 15 business days of the challenged decision, stating the facts and raising all grounds for appeal that the party may raise in district court.
- (c) (i) The planning commission shall hold a public hearing to hear the appeal de novo. The planning commission is not bound by the decision that has been appealed, but the appeal must be limited to the issues raised on appeal. The appellant has the burden of proving that the appealed decision was made in error.
  - (ii) Notice of the appeal must be published as provided in 7-1-2121 or 7-1-4127, as applicable.
