Amendment - 1st Reading-white - Requested by: Becky Beard - (S) Judiciary

- 2025

69th Legislature 2025 Drafter: Toni Henneman, SB0146.001.001

1	SENATE BILL NO. 146
2	INTRODUCED BY B. BEARD
4	A BILL FOR AN ACT ENTITLED: "AN ACT REVISING LAWS RELATED TO PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS;
5	PROVIDING PRIVATE PROPERTY PROTECTIONS; PROVIDING THAT GOVERNMENTAL ACTIONS MAY
6	NOT RESTRICT THE USE OF PRIVATE PROPERTY UNLESS THE ACTION FULFILLS A COMPELLING
7	GOVERNMENTAL INTEREST IN PUBLIC HEALTH OR SAFETY ; PROVIDING FOR A CAUSE OF ACTION
8	AND A STATUTE OF LIMITATION; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN
9	APPLICABILITY DATE."
11	WHEREAS, Article II, section 3, of the Montana Constitution provides that all persons are born free with
12	certain inalienable rights, including the right of "acquiring, possessing and protecting property"; and
13	WHEREAS, the Montana Legislature recognizes that government increasingly relies on regulations that
14	consume or otherwise negatively impact the use of private property; and
15	WHEREAS, the Montana Legislature is the proper branch of government to establish policies and
16	principles related to property within the context of the provisions provided in Article II, section 3, of the Montana
17	Constitution.
18
19	BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:
20
21	NEW SECTION. Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through-5_6] may be cited as the "Private
22	Property Protection Act".
23
24	NEW SECTION. Section 2. Findings and intent. (1) The legislature has the highest interest in
25	vindicating and protecting private property rights.
26	(2) The legislature finds that the constitutional right to acquire, possess, and protect property under
27	Article II, section 3, of the Montana constitution also embodies the notion of the fundamental right to use
28	property, including the use of property for financial gain or benefit.

69th Legislature 2025 Drafter: Toni Henneman, SB0146.001.001

1	(3)	The legislature's intent is to ensure that property use restrictions are limited to those
2	demonstrably	necessary and narrowly tailored to fulfill a compelling governmental interest-in public health or
3	safety.
4
5	NEW S	SECTION. Section 3. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through-5_6], unless the context or
6	subject matter clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:
7	(1)	"Compelling governmental interest in public health or safety" means a governmental interest of
8	the highest order in protecting the health and safety of the public that cannot be achieved through less
9	restrictive means.
10	(2)	"Governmental entity" means any unit of state or local government, including but not limited to
11	a state agency	, county, city, town, consolidated city-county, or political subdivision of the state.
12	(3)	"Private property" has the same meaning as "real property" as defined in 70-1-106 that is
13	owned by a private person or private entity.
14	(4)	"Property use restriction" means any law, ordinance, resolution, regulation, rule, policy, fee,
15	condition, test, permit, or other administrative action that restricts the use and enjoyment of private property by
16	the property owner or others in a lawful position.
17
18	NEW S	SECTION. Section 4. Limitations on property use restrictions exceptions. (1) Except as
19	provided in sul	osection (2), any property use restriction enacted by a governmental entity pursuant to Title 76,
20	chapters 1, 2,	3, or 25, must be limited to those demonstrably necessary and narrowly tailored to fulfill a
21	compelling governmental interest in public health or safety.
22	(2)	[Sections 1 through 5_6] do not apply to:
23	(a)	actions that prevent or abate nuisances as defined in 27-30-101;
24	(b)	the enforcement of the terms of a license, permit, or authorization, including requirements
25	imposed by federal law;-or
26	(c)	a government enforcement action that is the result of a final, nonappealable judicial
27	determination;
28	(d)	actions by a tribal government as defined in 2-15-141; or

69th Legislature 2025 Drafter: Toni Henneman, SB0146.001.001

1	(e)	a restrictive covenant entered into between private parties, unless the implementation or
2	adoption of the	restrictive covenant was required by a governmental entity.
3
4	NEW S	SECTION. Section 5. Enforcement. (1) An owner of private property that is the subject of a
5	property use re	estriction in violation of [section 4] may file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to
6	challenge the property use restriction.
7	(2)	The plaintiff shall prevail in an action filed under this section unless the governmental entity
8	demonstrates to the court through clear and convincing evidence that:
9	(a)	the property use restriction is demonstrably necessary and narrowly tailored to fulfill a
10	compelling governmental interest in public health or safety;
11	(b)	the property use restriction is the least restrictive means to achieve the stated purpose of the
12	restriction; and
13	(c)	alternative mechanisms reasonable alternatives could not achieve the stated interest of the
14	governmental entity.
15	(3)	If a plaintiff prevails under subsection (2), the court shall permanently enjoin further
16	enforcement of the property use restriction and shall award reasonable attorney fees and costs.
17	(4)	Nothing in this section supersedes or preempts any existing cause of action that a person may
18	have under the Montana or United States constitutions, any statute, or common law.
19
20	NEW S	SECTION. Section 6. Statute of limitation. The period prescribed for the commencement of
21	an action allowed under [section 5] is 5 years from the date a person becomes aware of, or reasonably may
22	have become aware of, the cause of action having accrued.
23
24	NEW S	SECTION. Section 7. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 5 6] are intended to be
25	codified as a ne	ew chapter in Title 76, and the provisions of Title 76 apply to [sections 1 through 56].
26
27	NEW S	SECTION. Section 8. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are
28	severable from	the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications,
