Description of fiscal impact

SB 28 revises the grace period for vehicle titling from 40 to 60 days. Late fee revenue would be reduced and the change would require programming of the Credentialing and Registration System (CARS) at a cost of $20,000.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions

Department of Justice

- 1. Currently, vehicle owners are charged a $10 late fee if registration is not completed within 40 days of the sale. The Motor Vehicle Division estimates it would have a 20% reduction in late fees, reducing revenue by $126,980 annually.
- 2. If the vehicle titling grace period is extended, the CARS system would need programming to accommodate the 60-day grace period. The estimated cost of the programming is $20,000.
